Christmas 2011

Dear Parishioners,

*“ Let us all rejoice in the Lord,
for our Savior has been born in the world.
Today true peace has come down to us from heaven”*

The above verse comes from the Entrance Antiphon at the Mass during the Night for Christmas. It reminds us that Jesus is TRUE PEACE. In other words if we will have an influence in our world Jesus must always be center to who we are. It is the real reason for us to celebrate and announce what is most essential in life.

If there was ever a time to remind ourselves of that it is certainly today. There is much turmoil throughout the world. May this tidings of great joy ring aloud in every corner of the world.

Once again it is a great privilege for me to extend my prayerful best wishes to all for a Most Blessed Christmas!

Happy New Year!

The Nativity of the Lord (Christmas Day) Sunday, December 25, 2011—In today’s Christmas Mass at dawn we hear from the Gospel reading that God has entered quietly into the world. Not into the great city of Jerusalem, but into a small village about five miles south. Not into a noble family, but to an outcast couple keeping the newborn in a manger. Not announced by royal edicts, but to common shepherds, the first human heralds of Christ’s birth. As Christian stewards we simply allow Christ to live in us no matter what our circumstances happen to be. We allow Christ to share his love with us and reflect that love out to others. We now are the heralds of Christ’s Incarnation. What an unimaginable gift from a generous Lord. Good stewards rejoice in this gift and give glory to God.

The poinsettias for Christmas are donated in memory of loved ones, the list is included on the back page of this bulletin.

The arrangement at the altar for the Weekend Liturgies is donated by: Kenny & Diane Hobbs

“In celebration of their 40th Wedding Anniversary”

Christmas 2011

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

“The Word became flesh and made His dwelling among us” (John 1:14). This Christmas, as we draw near to the Christ Child of Bethlehem, we again celebrate the closeness of God to us, for God became man, He came to dwell among us. Amid all of the struggles and divisions which continue to afflict the human family around the world, we who believe in the Lord Jesus are able to rejoice in the fact that God is not distant. He is close; He is “Emmanuel,” God-is-with-us.

My hope and prayer for each and every one of you this Christmas 2011 is that as you gather with your family, friends and parish communities, your hearts and lives may be bathed by the joy and radiance of the Word made Flesh. Together let us contemplate this profound and saving mystery of God’s love and may all our hearts be filled with the light which shines forth from the stable of Bethlehem!

A Blessed and Merry Christmas!

Sincerely yours in Christ, Our Redeemer,

Most Reverend John R. Gaydos
Bishop of Jefferson City

SCHOOL NEWS

THANK YOU

Thank you for all the Christmas goodies, gifts, greetings and cards. We appreciate your kindness. We wish each of you a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! Msgr. Wilbers, Sr. Joanne, Barb, Susan and John.

A note from Monsignor:

A special thanks to those who helped decorate the church for Christmas, especially, John Riley, Susan Ziegler, Tom Ziegler, Donald Kemmerling, Sue Spica, and the PSR Mountain Makers.

A special thanks to everyone who contributed to the poinsettias to enhance the beauty of the church.

Thanks to all who helped make a "joyful noise unto the Lord!"; Fred Wackenhut along with the members of the choir.

In Grateful Appreciation for our Christmas Decorations—2011
