Prayer for Vocations

Faithful God, You sent your son, Jesus, to be our Good Shepherd. Through our baptism you blessed us and called us to follow Jesus who leads us on the path of life. Renew in us the desire to remain faithful to our commitment to serve you and the Church. Bless all who dedicate their lives to you through marriage, the single life, the diaconate, priesthood, and consecrated life. Give insight to those who are discerning their vocation. Send us to proclaim the Good News of Jesus, our Good Shepherd, through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

RESPECT LIFE

No one is master of life; no one has the right to manipulate, oppress or even take life, neither that of others or his own.

To recognize the value of human life implies consistent measures from the legal point of view, especially the protection of human beings who are unable to defend themselves, such as the unborn, the mentally handicapped, and the most seriously or terminally ill. In particular, in regard to the human embryo, science has now demonstrated that it is a human individual who possesses his own identity from conception. Therefore, it is logical to exact that this identity be legally recognized, above all in its fundamental right to life. Pope John Paul II "Angelus Address" (Feb. 3, 2002)

Engaged Encounter

The Octave Day of Christmas, The Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, January 1, 2012

It is a new year and Christ is born anew in us! We need not listen to prophets of gloom and doom but words of benediction: "May the Lord bless you and keep you. May the Lord's face shine upon you and be gracious to you. May the Lord look kindly upon you and grant you peace!"

God's message is Jesus, who despite coming as a child says: "Look at me and see the face of God." Through him, God's ways of mercy and peace are known on earth. In him, we are no longer slaves; we are coheirs with Christ. With Jesus we can invoke God's name and cry out, "Abba! Father!"

Mary is the model for all who seek salvation. She is not a nameless individual. She is the Theotokos, the "God bearer." Her voice is heard in the poor and lowly who treasure God's word in their hearts and ponder all they have seen and heard. We too are called to be "Christ bearers" to the world. In us, God's glad tidings are announced to all the earth.

For Reflection: Have I given birth to Jesus in my life? Do I speak good news to others?

THANK YOU

Thank you for all the Christmas goodies, gifts, greetings and cards. We appreciate your kindness. We wish each of you a very Happy New Year!
